You shall allow reciprocal release of information between the supervising officer and treatment provider. You shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to your ability to pay.

CAUSE

Mr. Young began his term of supervised release in September 2008. Upon release, he relapsed on controlled substances, methamphetamine, and Mr. Young was sanctioned to drug testing and substance abuse treatment.

Beginning on or about November 2009, Mr. Young began to struggle with his attendance at substance abuse treatment. His reporting requirements and home contacts were increased, however, Mr. Young has continued to struggle and is currently non-complaint with treatment. In addition, he has failed to report for drug testing on 3 separate occasions.

To his credit, Mr. Young has maintained full-time employment and a residence in the community. The offender has disclosed to the undersigned officer that he has no social support systems in the community and "feels alone" as of recently. Mr. Young was residing with his girlfriend, however, they have recently broken up and he now has no stable residence.
